NICOLE SERVICE

My name is Nicole Service and I am a final year Communication Management and Public Relations student in the Jordonstown Campus. I am a laid back, creative nerd who has the qualities of a great Vice President: confident, dependable and honest.

It never occurred to me to run for student election until this year but oddly, in my busiest year I took a real interest in participating in other endeavors to add to my university life span. I am currently a student representative, a student advisor and I have also written a few pieces on the Ulster Student PR blog.

So why do I want to become our next Vice President of Campaigns and Communication?

Well, to be honest I never gave much attention to the Student's Union until I was in second year-when I started to eat my lunch there. It was always there on the mall but never really took much attention to it. This is not how I want students to view the Ulster University Student's Union.

It should be seen as a place where yes, you can relax and eat your £1 chips but also, it should be recognised as a haven where you can find support; known by all, to be the spot where you can find a happy-to-listen set of ears for your queries to be heard and acknowledged as well as proven to be the hotspot for finding full listings of clubs, societies and events that are held so that you don't need to wait until freshers or refreshers just to find out what is available to you.

Through hard work and dedication, I feel this is obtainable and I hope you believe that I am capable of accomplishing the task.

MY GOALS

- Did you know there is an Ulster University Student's Union app? Most people haven't. THAT'S NOT GOOD ENOUGH. Students have the right to hear more about their Student Union and issues that affect us. I aspire to make a two-way conversation between the Union and its students so that UUSU can provide facilities that students will benefit from and the students will be kept up-to-date on what is offered.
- Ever feel like you are talking to a brick wall when you are trying to get in contact with your lecturers or supervisors? THAT'S NOT GOOD ENOUGH. The cliché of learning from our mistakes is true, however how can we learn if feedback is given a month too late? I want to improve the communication channel which students and their lecturers have so that it is streamline and fast-reacting.
- Can you think of a time when you felt like you were not heard? When the criticisms you share with your class mates have been voiced but fall on deaf ears? Even the feedback your student representative gave at meetings has not been taken seriously? THAT'S NOT GOOD ENOUGH. We all have opinions and ideas on how to better our university, so all suggestions should be given respect. I desire the Student's Union to be identified as the helping-hands to get your ideas pushed in the right direction.
- And did you ever think to yourself; will I be affected when the new Belfast Campus is built? There have been so many rumours and gossip spread across all campus due to the confusion and lack of information that students receive on the matter. THAT'S NOT GOOD ENOUGH. I aim to bridge that gap between what happens higher up in the university and with students so that they are not kept in the dark about things we should know.
